The BSCR and BSCS Awards are for members of the British Skydiving only.

The Lou Johnson Memorial Awards were introduced in memory of Lou Johnson who recorded, on film the first British 10-way (10-man in 1972) Formation. He himself closed 13th at break off altitude in 1972, which amply displayed his own flying ability. Lou died on Sunday 19th August 1973 while photographing the Royal Green Jackets.

Please also note that the awards date back many years. Therefore, the awards themselves refer to the British Parachute Association (BPA) and not British Skydiving. They are therefore BPA awards.
